RETROSPECT

I

T MAY BE truly said that the experience of college is unique. For each individual it is original, novel, and unlike anything else. Combined with the wonder of it and the fear of its passing all too quickly, college life exerts a force upon the individual that will never throughout his life be equaled. Invariably a state of change, generally disciplinary, college is a going-away party and a survival course which leads into infinity. Our own experience, exceptional, dear to the point of jealousy, we explore, enlarge, enjoy, exhaust, and later, eventually, remember.

ALMA MATER

Lend your ears, Oh Delta Platinettes
To this song of praise;
Add your voices, streams and fountains
Swell to heights its days

To our noble Alma Mater,
Would you pay homage due?
Join with ours your hearts and voices
In this tribute true.

Alma Mater, we thy children
At thy shrine bow low,
Faith in thee and love undying
Set our hearts aglow.

To thy call our hearts beat loyal,
In thy name we grow;
Alma Mater, Delta College,
May thy fame still glow.

As a beacon lights the breakers,
Guiding shipmen on;
As a Mother to her eaglet,
Thou new heights has shown.

Thou hast taught us ne'er to slaken
'Ere the race is gained;
So to thee our hearts chant praises
In this triumph-strain.

COLLEGE

WHAT

Childhood's end? An obstacle course to a career? A fling before settling down? Yes, college is all this and much more. We have put away our childish things, our play, dependence, puppy love, innocence. We are ready to question, to speculate, to examine, to argue, and to learn.

THEN, IS COLLEGE?

College is the smiles of success and the tears of failure. College is old friends, new faces, old questions, new answers, old problems, new insight. Yet all our definitions prove inadequate. College teaches one to reason, to wonder, to evaluate, to achieve, to desire, to strive. College is an era in one's life, a part of a whole, but a part that is indescribable in importance, in enjoyment, in suspense, in hope.

Defying definition, college is a place, a way of life, a force, a fantasy; has been a dream, a hope, a choice, an order, a fear; will ultimately become a memory of benches, bricks, snacks, books, and friends; of lines and love and lectures, labs and cokes, the Trojan Shield at seven, the library at eight-thirty, and weekends, the football Championship, the lunch line, assembly, and finals, and cheering, sneering, voting, laughing, being a member of a class now gone forever. Not now, but from now on, this is college: a memory of our hurried, unworried, happy youth.

MRS. THELMA HUGHES

DEDICATION

There exists on every campus one personality who serves as a shining light to the students. To this personality on our campus we now pay our tribute.

To hundreds of MDJC and MHS students in past and present years she has endeared herself because of her bright outlook on life. As a result of her teaching many are able to speak, read, and write on a higher level; but more important, as a result of her daily life many are inspired to lead a better, more useful life throughout their years.

She lives by and teaches her motto—"Happiness is an elusive rainbow. Chase it for yourself and you can never obtain it. Try to give it to someone else and it is automatically yours." Through her giving, she has become the very symbol of happiness to us who know and love her.

In appreciation for her loyal service, her sincere counseling, her patient teaching, and all those little "extras" she does for her students, we of the RETROSPECT staff proudly dedicate this the 1963 RETROSPECT to MRS. THELMA HUGHES.

What is college?

A fantasy

True to life, where friends are met and made;

Where personalities are recognized and developed;

Where talent and merit
are rewarded;

A fantasy to live in our memories forever.

ATHLETICS

FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP TROPHY FOR 1962

Things were looking bad after the first two games. We had lost to Pearl River 30-8 and to Itawamba 27-15.

Then it happened; the Trojans found the formula—score. And score they did! The Trojans rolled over Southwest 41-14. Thereafter, they were unstoppable. Holmes was the next victim 40-28. Our Homecoming Queen, Gale Hartness, reigned over the 35-6 defeat of Hinds. Next it was East Central by the score of 20-13. Then Jones was thumped 27-13.

This action left the Trojans in a five-way tie for the lead alongside Co-Lin, Pearl River, Perkinson, and East Mississippi. This was given due attention by Mr. Bob Howie in his Jackson Daily News sports cartoon

Now the Trojans had to really go. They came through in fine fashion by beating Northwest 21-12 at Greenville. This put Delta and East Mississippi in a tie for first place, due to play the following week.

The Delta Trojans could not be denied in this game. Behind the hard-charging line, Buddy Hodges and John Garrison led the defeat of East Mississippi 27-24. This gave the Trojans the Championship, the first time in 34 years. This coming out of the cellar earned the Trojan team the title "Cinderella Team of 1962."

The Trojans reaped many rewards. Buddy Hodges, John Garrison, and Doug Minchew made All-State. Buddy made Little All-American with John, Doug, Shumaker, and Lindsey receiving Honorable Mention. Coach Randall was named "Coach of the Year" in the conference. But the Trojans and their coaches received the highest honor possible—"Championship for 1962."

IN MEMORIAM

MOORHEAD

WHAT IS HIGH SCHOOL?

That's easy. High school is that segment of our education occurring between elementary school and college. And yet, thinking about it, high school is more—much more.

As many people as you ask this question, that many different answers will you have. Basically, however, high school is people. And because high school is people, it possesses the traits of people. These include Friendship, Spirit, and Knowledge.

HIGH SCHOOL

HIGH SCHOOL IS

... on the campus ...

One of the greatest benefits derived from school life is the friendships formed there. Since we must associate with our fellow students in a school society, it's almost imperative that we get along. That's usually not very hard to do.

School life affords us many opportunities to be with our friends . . .

... jostling for position in the locker room ...

... playing ping-pong in the old canteen ...

... in the study hall ...

... or even in the library.

HIGH SCHOOL IS

School spirit is like the inner works of a watch or the engine of an automobile. It makes the school go. Sensed, but not seen; invisible to the naked eye, but present just the same, spirit is the motivation of school life.

It comes especially as a sense of belonging—knowing that one has taken a part in the life of his school.

School spirit is especially felt on occasions such as Freshman Day.

SPIRIT

It may be sensed in the student-teacher relationship . . .

. . . or in the attitudes of the students themselves.

Even the buildings exude a certain amount of that intangible something called school spirit.

HIGH SCHOOL IS

Now we come to the crux of the matter. After all, what is the purpose of attending school anyway? Knowledge—we come to learn. How much we learn depends upon the individual, of course.

However, with the aid of our teachers,

careful study and preparation,

KNOWLEDGE

through research,

and the practical application of what we have learned,

we can become better educated for having attended high school; better personalities for having participated in school life.

MR. AND MISS MOORHEAD HIGH SCHOOL

TOMMY LEE BROOKS

LACELLE LIVINGSTON

HIGH SCHOOL IS FRIENDSHIP—ties that are formed for life. The passing of years may cloud the memory, but friendship lingers. There is the Who's Who contest when students are given an opportunity to honor their friends by bestowing special recognition on them. Clubs give students an opportunity to work with their classmates for the betterment of school and personal life.

HIGH SCHOOL IS SPIRIT

The dictionary defines spirit as: "vigorous sense of membership in a group." At what time other than Homecoming does one feel more deeply a sense of belonging. There is the excitement of electing the queen and her court . . . the tension of the big ball game . . . the humor of Freshman Day. All of these and more add up to what is known as School Spirit.

Spirit doesn't climax with Homecoming, however. Throughout the year this intangible influence aids in keeping school life alive. There are basketball trips, tournaments, track meets . . .

Remember this night? Thomas Sheffield, President of MHS Student Council, places a crown upon the head of Miss LaCelle Livingston as a symbol of her reign as Homecoming Queen 1962.

FOOTBALL

Coach Carl Grubb offers some pointers to center Matthews and offensive backfield unit composed of Tenhet, Bowen, Diamond, and Moore.

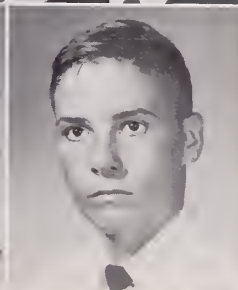

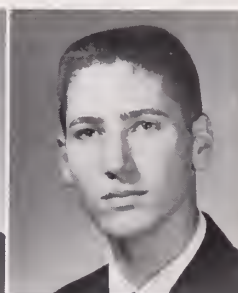

The Aggie football squad turned in one of the best records in several seasons. The year began with a loss to a powerful Hollandale eleven. Then followed consecutive wins over Riverside, Linn, Tchula, Isola, Glen Allan, and Anguilla. The conference championship now depended upon the final game with Inverness. The hard-fighting Aggies went down 20-12. All in all, it was a very successful season.

COACH MELVIN DAVIS

The Aggie roundballers for 1963 did not experience one of the best seasons in the school's history. The two victories the team turned in are magnified by the fact that there were but two seniors on the entire squad. We can, therefore, agree with Coach Davis' prediction that prospects for basketball at MHS in the future seem much brighter.

The MHS girls' basketball team did not experience one of its best years either. With but two seniors on the entire squad it was a period of giving experience to the inexperienced. The 3-14 record is not indicative of the true ability of the team as nine of the fourteen losses were by four points or less.

HIGH SCHOOL IS KNOWLEDGE

It is the knowledge of instructors passed on to students. It is the practical knowledge gained from association with others. As members of a class we have opportunity to share what we have acquired.

The quest for knowledge is sometimes rewarded by membership in organizations such as the National Honor Society. The greatest reward, however, is that the knowledge that we gain can help us in our search for greater things.
